Dr. Burleigh,

Ontario.

Dear Dr. Burleigh,

Our family is just now researching our ancestor, Mahlon Knight UEL, who settled in Kingston in 1784. He was granted land in Kingston, also lots 37 and 38, con. 4, Sidney. It is also recorded that Mahlon Knight "drew large tracts of land in Napanee".

I recently wrote to the Registry Office in Napanee for information but they could not help me without information with regard to lot, concession, township, etc. However they suggested that since you have done considerable research of U.E.Loyalists in this area that you might be able to help me.

I would appreciate any information you might give me on Mahlon Knight's property, or family, in that region. I understand that there are Knights living in that area.

I will be happy to reimburse you for your trouble. Thank you very much.

Yours truly,

Phyllis Armstrong

Gentlemen:

Please, if you would, send me information on how to have my family traced and an estimate of what the costs for this service might be.

Both grandparents on my father's side families' reportedly were United Empire Loyalists who settled in Prince Edward County.

Thank you very much.

Dr. H. C. Purlough

Canada

Dear Dr. Purlough:

Mr. E. J. Chard, Editor of The Loyalist Gazette, was kind enough to give me your name and address and suggested that perhaps you could help me.

For nearly 12 years I have been trying to get some information, such as birth date, place of birth, parents, etc., on my great, great grandmother, Martha Stiles, who was married to Horace Spafford. After much research in the United States, I finally concluded that the Spaffords and Stiles families come from Canada. I have been able to substantiate this fact from the following:

1. A memorandum from the Public Archives at Ottawa, Ontario, copy of which is enclosed herewith.
2. Church records in the United States has the following entries -
"William Nelson Spafford, oldest son of Martha and Horace was born 1828 at East Loughborough, Ontario. Also Martha Jane Spafford, a daughter, was born 1837 at Fronenac Co., Ontario."
3. The Incorporated Synod of the Diocese of Ontario at Kingston has records that show Spaffords and Stiles living in and around Loughboro, as follows -
"Brockville - St. Peter's - 2-L-2
William Edward - son of Edward and Margaret Stiles - born May 15, 1863, baptized June 23, 1863 by the Rev. W.H. Gunning
"Kingston - St. George's Cathedral - 2-K-3, #500
Luke Barrett married Mary Stiles June 9th, 1824, both of Loughboro, by the Rev. Geo. O. Stuart
"Loughboro - 4-L-2
Lyles Wilkie Spafford (Methodist) married Myrtle May Switzer - March 1st, 1905 by the Rev. J. H. Astley
"St. George's Cathedral - 2-K-3
Valentine Embury married Irlanda Spafford - Thursday, October 26, 1820 by the Rev. G. O. Stuart
"St. George's Cathedral - 2-K-3
William Stanton, Fort Erie married Caroline Spafford of Loughboro, Monday, June 18, 1827 by the Rev. G. O. Stuart
